CHAPTER 1

Arrangement for Skill Training

Part 1

Pre-employment Training

Section 8 To obtain the rights and the benefits according to this Act, the pre-employment training provider shall prepare a detailed training program for the trades prescribed by the Minister as per Section 7 and proposed to the registrar for approval. Such program must include:

- (1) curriculum
- (2) place or center for training
- (3) name and qualification of the training instructor.
- (4) period of training
- (5) list of equipment necessary for training either still in use or to be acquired in the future.
- (6) method and standards used for evaluating the training
- (7) others as to be prescribed by the Committee.

The consideration for approval given by the registrar shall be in accordance with the standard, method and conditions prescribed by the Committee.

Any alteration or amendment to the sub-clause (1), (2), (4), or (6) after these sub-clauses have been approved cannot be made without the consent of the registrar.

Section 9 The qualification of the training instructor must comply with the Committee prescription.

Section 10 The training provider shall prepare the regulations for training in Thai language and must contain at least these information.

- (1) training period
- (2) date and time of training and breaks
- (3) holidays
- (4) leave and rules of taking leave
- (5) allowance during training session
- (6) conditions required for canceling training agreement
- (7) rules for compensation in case of any accident or sickness arising from training
- (8) others as to be prescribed by the Committee.

Section 11 A written agreement must be made by and between the training provider and the trainee and must cover clauses as prescribed by the Committee.

Section 12 The training provider must follow the regulations concerning the protection of trainee as prescribed by the Minister. Also must prepare and keep record or bio-data of trainee.

Section 13 Upon completion of the training course as per Section 8 (6), the provider shall issue a certificate to the trainee in 15 days from the date of achievement and then notify the registrar.

Section 14 In case the training provider wishes to transfer his business to other person, he would notify the registrar in writing not later than 15 days prior to such transfer and indicate that the transferee wishes or does not wish to continue the pre-employment training activity. In such case both the former and the new providers must jointly sign in an agreement.

In case transferee wishes to take over the pre-employment training activities, the registrar would record down and shall regard the transferee as the registered training provider under Section 8 from the date of transfer with the same rights and duties that the former provider originally had.

If the transferee wants to stop the pre-employment training activities, then the registrar shall arrange and send the trainees who still have unfinished training to another training provider or to the government training institute in the same trade. In doing so, the former training provider must be responsible for all the remaining training cost.

Section 15 The training provider is not allowed to demand or receive any kind of training fees or remuneration from the trainee.

Section 16 The training provider may arrange for the trainee to receive training at the government educational or training institute or other training institutions accepted by the registrar.

The curriculum and expenses for such training as per Paragraph 1 must be approved by the registrar.

Section 17 If the training provider close down his business or has other reason that he can no longer provide further training activities, he shall send a letter informing the registrar not later than 15 days prior to date of such closure. In case it is Pre-employment training, Paragraph 3 of Section 14 shall be applied to the trainees mutatis mutandis, who have not completed their training at the date of such closure. Except that with the consent of the Committee, the former training provider may not be responsible for the remaining training cost.

Section 18 For the benefit of the skill development, the training provider may admit students from schools or universities to receive training with the curriculum of the institutes, of the training provider or of which is jointly prepared by the institute and the provider. In doing so, the provider must submit the prepared curriculum to the registrar prior to the commencement of training session, or except that the curriculum has already been submitted to the registrar. In this case Section 11, 12, 13, 15, 33, 34, 35, 36 and 37 shall be applied accordingly mutatis mutandis.

Persons sent by the government to attend such training are also covered under Paragraph 1.

Section 19 The establishment of skill training centers must conform to the standard, method, and condition as prescribed by the Committee.

Part 2

Skill up-grading Training and Training for Job Change.

Section 20 To obtain the rights and benefits according to this Act, the training provider must submit the curriculum, all related details and list of expenses to be spent in arranging training activities to the registrar for approval.

Action taken for approval by the registrar must be in accordance with the standard, method and conditions as stipulated by the Committee.

In providing training activities as per Paragraph 1, Section 15, 16, 17 and 19 shall be applied mutatis mutandis.

Section 21 During the training course, the training provider who is also the employer still has to abide by the law, rules and employment contract.

In case the training activity is held with the request of the employee and in written agreement, the employer may arrange training after the employee's regular working hours or on holidays with wages paid not less than the regular wage rate according to the actual number of hours spent in such training.

CHAPTER 2

Skill Standards

Section 22 To promote skill development, the Committee shall stipulate the National Skill Standards for various trades and present to the Minister for approval.

Following the approval and announcement of skill standards in the Government Gazette, the Department of Skill Development shall arrange a skill standard test in certain trades as per Section 23, or the skill standard testing provider shall conduct such test according to Section 24.

The qualification of applicants, the testing method and issuance of achievement certificates shall be as prescribed by the Committee.

Section 23 The Department of Skill Development shall hold the skill standard test and promote people to participate in such event.

Section 24 Any person wishing to conduct skill standard test can apply for permission to the registrar.

The application for the permit, the permit issuance, the qualification of skill standard examiner, the permit suspension and revocation shall be in accordance with the standard, method and conditions as stipulated by the Committee.

Section 25 In conducting skill standard test, fees shall be collected from the applicants not higher than the rate prescribed by the Committee.

Section 26 Any person requiring his skill standard to be certified may apply to the registrar.

The quest for skill standard certification, skill standard certification, approval of conduction testing for approved skill standards and the issuance of certified letter to a person passing skill test as per Paragraph 1 shall comply with standard, method and conditions prescribed by the Committee.

Skill Development Fund

Section 27 A Fund called “Skill Development Fund” shall be set up in the Department of Skill Development, Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare. The Fund is intended to be used as a revolving fund for all the expenditures involving skill development promotion.
